

Epiphany #2—Baptism of the Lord Sunday

January 10, 2021, 11:00 am

PRELUDE

Wayfaring Stranger—American folk hymn, setting by Larry Shackley

CALL TO RETURN TO OUR SOULS

Pastor: Here in the busy city

Quartet: Now let the church be seen

Pastor: Where lesser gods are worshipped

Quartet: In money and machine;

Pastor: Where news is but sensation,

Quartet: The Good News hardly heard.

Pastor: Now let the church take action

Quartet: In living out the word!

Pastor: Here in the busy city

Quartet: God walks on every street

Pastor: In generous or greedy,

Quartet: The honest or the cheat,

Pastor: And daily we must offer

Quartet: The good that goes unpriced

Pastor: With vigor and with vision

Quartet: The lifestyle of the Christ.

—Shirley Erena Murray

#475 Glory to God

Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing

CALL TO CONFESSION AND COMMITMENT

Pastor: There is something basically wrong with our world,

Quartet: We don't have to look too far to see that.

Pastor: Look in the hearts and souls of human beings.

Quartet: The great danger facing us today is not the atomic bomb, dangerous as it is.
Pastor: The real danger is that atomic bomb which lies in the hearts & souls of humans.
Quartet: Capable of exploding in the vilest of hate and the most damaging selfishness.
Pastor: That's the atomic bomb we must fear today.
Quartet: And that is the basis of our confession
Pastor: And our commitment
Quartet: To go beyond the mind that we now have. Amen.
